Fifth Appellate District

F035714 People v. Molina

Oral argument having been waived in the above-entitled case in accordance with the provisions of a notice mailed to counsel, the calendar date heretofore set is vacated and the case is submitted for decision.

F035714 People v. Molina

The sentences imposed in counts 2, 3, and 4 are each reversed, and the matter is remanded for resentencing as provided in this opinion. Appellant may be sentenced to a single indeterminate term of 25 years to life under section 667.61, subdivision (g) because the sexual offenses in counts 2, 3, and 4 were committed against the victim during a single occasion. However, the trial court may impose the appropriate determinate sentence for the remaining one-strike convictions, as provided by subdivision (g). In all other respects, the judgment is affirmed. Ardaiz, P.J.
